Inspiring change through connection

An Inspiring Location

The National Marine Aquarium, home to the Ocean Conservation Trust, is the perfect venue for meetings and events with a unique backdrop and breakout spaces away from the day-to-day environment. Either experiencing the beautiful view of Plymouth Sound and the Barbican from our Suites, or the mesmerising underwater world displayed in our exhibit areas, there is a variety of spaces suitable for your meetings and entertaining needs.

Our rooms can accommodate parties and delegates from as few as 10 people up to 150. All spaces are available either individually or together and can be laid out formally or in a relaxed setting. Used for a variety of events from breakfast meetings, board meetings and formal conferences, to banquets, celebrations and corporate events.

How to Get Here

By car

Harbour Car Park is the closest carpark at the rear of the building which is less than a 5 minute walk. There are also two car parks available on the Barbican which are less than a 10 minute walk. We also have limited on-site parking with only 3 disabled bays available on a first come first served basis.

By train

Walking from Plymouth Train Station takes around 30 minutes, with a taxi taking 10 minutes. The NMA postcode is PL4 0LF.

By bus

There are several bus routes that stop at Royal Parade, Exeter Street or on the Barbican. Royal Parade and Exeter Street require a 10 minute walk, however the Barbican and Sutton Street are 5 minutes away.
